BAHRAINI of MIDDLE EAST

STATISTICS

Population - 882,000

Religion - Islam - 96.60% Christian 3.40%

Main Language - Arabic (Baharna spoken)

Bahraini Arabs trace their ancestry back to Ishmael, the son of Abraham. During the 7th century the Prophet Muhammad drew many Arab tribes together by giving them a common religion, Islam.

Culture & Islamic religion are closely bound together. The Bahraini consider the moral values of western Christians to be pagan, so it is difficult for them to accept any other world view.

Bahrain is open to foreign business which opens doors for Christian business people.
